

Introduction

Dear Readers

We say 'Akwaaba' to the second edition of 'Ghana and UNESCO' magazine.

To our sponsors, we wish to thank you for having kept faith with us and to our numerous advertisers we appreciate your desire to partner us.

The past year has seen the Ghana National Commission for UNESCO among other activities participate in the 35th UNESCO General Conference. It is a privilege to have Ghana elected to serve on the UNESCO Executive Board. We look forward to serving our sub-region and the Organization effectively.

The National Commission has deepened its ties with civil society especially with Parliament while our expansion programme of the Clubs for UNESCO is ongoing.

We appreciate your comments and pieces of advice which will go a long way to improve the quality of the magazine.

Thank you.

Sylvia Lutterodt

Ag. Secretary-General
